Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Professor Laborlaye the Great Friend of America, on the Presidential Election For the Union, for America, it is a question of Life or Death. Mr. Lincoln represents a policy the most compact. It is comprised in two words: Maintenance of the Union, the abotion of slavery, all the rest is merely accessory, and can easily be modified according to circumstances. Mr. McClellan protests his devotion to the Union, his desire to re-establish concord and peace; but these are general phrases which conceal the real thought of the party. At bottom, the policy of McClellan is not less defined than that of his rival. To him who knows how to construe the device on his banner, it means - Re-establishment of Union such as may be, Slavery continuing a domestic question, that is slavery continuing. To end a bloody strife and restore peace by replastering at whatever cost the old edifice of the Union, such are the promises of the General; they are not dazzling; one must reckon upon the miseries of prolonged war; on the...
