Immediately after the Restoration, the Soots Parliament passed an important Act dealing with Marischal College. On the 20th March, 1661, it confirmed the earl s charter and further of new Gives and dispones to the said Culledga Masters and members thairof all freedoms liberties priveledges and jurisdiction that to any frie Colledge within this Realme be law and practick is known to apperteane. This Act has a bearing upon a question which, as we shall see, led to a lawsuit--the dispute as to the scope of the Marischal College charter. The next twenty years have nothing of interest to record. The Revolution had as little effect upon the University as the Restoration. All the members seem to have taken the oath of allegiance. The Principal at the time was Robert Paterson, who had been appointed...
