Ladies And Gentlemen, k N referring to the map of what is known as the Old World, we find two vast continents, Europe and Asia, separated from each other by the Ural Mountains, the River Ural, and a number of inland seas. Near the southern extremity of this boundary-line, and bordering on the waters of the Mediterranean, lies the country called the Holy Land. Here, upwards of eighteen hundred years ago, Jesus Christ, the greatest and truest benefactor of mankind, lived and died. Here he originated that mighty religious movement which has achieved such splendid results in the world, and scattered the blessings of saving truth on untold nations and generations. I purpose this evening to trace the gradual and steady progress of this grand movement, and its influence on the character and destinies of the European and Asiatic nations. It will be...
