Mr. Howard has a very intense nature. He thinks deeply, he feels deeply, and he acts in proportion. When he goes in for a thing, he goes, as the good dog Rover did, all over. There isn t a better fellow to camp out with. He can put up a tent in half the time another would pull it down. He can cut wood for the camp fire in such approved style that one feels inclined to let him do it all himself. At frying trout he can beat Delmonico. Mr. Howard is a reader and a lover of books. His private library cannot be beaten, for its size, in selection and binding, by any library in Duluth. ANTON SCHROEDER, Inventor and Manufacturer, St. Paul, Minn. Brain fever caused the deafness of the above young man when he was four years of age. In 1877 he was sent to the Minnesota School for the Deaf and graduated in 1886. During the summer of that year he had a private teacher, under whom he remained until the following fall, when he entered St. John s university, Collegeville, Minn, (a university for the hearing), and graduated from the commercial department of the college the following year. After completing his business course he continued his studies in the classical department for about three years and a half, when he had to go home on account of the death of his mother. Soon...
