Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My name is Mark Campbell, and I'm a ghost. No, I'm not a ghost as in the dead or the undead or even the unborn, I'm a ghost of the living and it's almost the same thing. In Granite Rock, Utah-The Fence is sagging, its magic waning-it refuses to go down but it's hanging on by a knot hole. It's a lone sentinel beneath a sky of shadowy low hanging clouds, thunder, and lightning but never rain. Barker and his minions have taken over the small town and the founders are in danger of more than just losing their town to six foot monster grasshoppers, giant creepy crawlies, and twirling, whirling shadows brought there to invade. They are in danger of losing their children, if the fence fails. Emily Stewart, one of the founders' daughters goes undercover trying to destroy the threat that has taken over her town. She finds she's in over her head as Barker begins to suspect her and closes in. That's when J.C., the mystical ghost leader calls me in; however, I'm no ordinary ghost. I'm brave. I'm strong. But I'm a little crazy and I have my own demons to conquer. You are brazen, my darling. They will be lucky to have you. Marissa speaks from within my mind. Her heart-shaped face smiles that slow deliberate smile. And I will never leave you. I promise. She sits on her silver box; her heart shaped key tossed aside. You are coo coo crazy for Coa coa puffs. The ugly boy says giggling. His face is glue white with large...
